

Around The World In Song

A Celebration of Song for Children & Families

"Buoyant, life-affirming... music of hope and affirmation." — Chicago Tribune

Everyone becomes part of the music in Around the World in Song! Through colorful songs, stories and musical improvisation games, the Guy Mendilow Ensemble transports families on an exhilarating interactive adventure through Ensemble members' diverse homes worldwide. Families encounter vibrant characters and some of the band's most fascinating "stars:" instruments like overtone singing, the munnharpa (jaw harp) and musical bow and arrow.

"Our audience of (800) children was transfixed. I was spellbound. This is the kind of experience that can open your eyes and ears to possibilities never imagined... I asked the children as they were leaving the theatre after the concert how the experience had been for them. It was the first time I heard unanimous appreciation. If you are trying to open your audiences to new horizons, if you are trying to expose the arts to children or adults, if you seek a new experience for yourself, I highly recommend the Guy Mendilow Ensemble to you."

— Chad Haight, Admiral Theatre, Bremerton, WA
